GOSPELITES

The Apostles who were fishermen toiled all night without success. At the command of Our Lord they went out again thereby giving us a lesson in the advantages of good genuine work. Work, a term that is quite alien to many in this world, is nonetheless necessary. It enables man to atone for sin as well as to help him produce the goods that the world needs. God's will is usually not fulfilled without work of some kind. While on the other hand, by work fatal results of idleness are avoided.

Work is varied according to the various ways of making a living. It varies from unskilled manuel labor to the highest kind of intellectual endeavor. Too bad that there has to be such a difference in work because it brings discrimination between classes of people. Yet men's talents vary and their individual abilities are different. This accounts for the rich and the poor, the talented and the illiterate, the so-called society and the lower class.

But only the genuinely ignorant would claim that because a man works he is undignified and belongs to the "Lower Class". Work rather elevates a man and gives him character of which he may be proud. Only those who work ever attain real success. And I do mean to include in this statement work of the manuel type. Work was dignified by the carpentry of the Divine Master. It was dignified by the domestic work of Mary the Mother of God. It was dignified by the Apostles in the indefatigable labors.

Christ condemned the opposite of work, idleness. The latter, we learned from school days, is the devil's workshop. Not only is it in idleness that sin is born but how much hidden and precious talent is wasted therein! Far better humble human toil than laziness in a rich man's routine. Personality is soon lost when work is shun.

Work can be holy if it is performed without grumbling. Work should be looked upon as a holy mission that one has been called to in this world. It should be dedicated to God with the purpose in mind of fulfilling our God-given work in this life. In this way all work takes on the same holy character that the very missionary labors of the Apostles had.

Thank God if you have work. Thank Him too that you are able to do that work. Try to improve your position by study and diligence. Do not envy those whose lot may be less toilsome than yours. Remember, on the other hand that work is not the principal aim of human living despite the attempt of some to create this impression. We have other duties to perform, social, neighborly and religious. Work is honorable, too much can be disastrous.

Mother Cabrini, First American Saint Canonization July 7th

"Americans are smart, ambitious, builders, very active—but they never will be saints." That about sums up the world's opinion of us. But we Americans knew that the seeds of greatness were in us and that some day a Saint would appear in our American Family. Some day we knew that the sidewalks of New York would resound to the steps of pious tourists as those of Assisi and Avila do now. And our faith was not in vain; for on July 7th, the Holy Father, Pius the twelfth will solemnly declare that Mother Cabrini, an American, is now Saint Francesca Cabrini. So we say to the world: We are active, builders, ambitious—but we can also be saints.

See how Mother Cabrini's life followed a typically American pattern. She was born in Lodi, Italy around the turn of the century. While still a young woman she founded an order of religious woman which was to become world famous as the Missionary Sisters

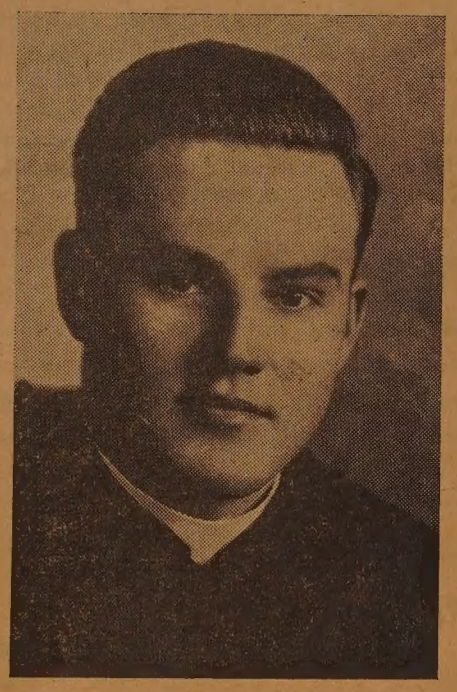
Rev. Andrew Hayes, O. S. M.



Father Andrew Hayes, who was recently appointed to work in this Parish, was born in Chicago on June 21st, 1918. He attended St. Catherine of Siena's Grammar School which is located in Oak Park, Ill. Upon completion of his Grammar School education, he enrolled at the Servite Preparatory Seminary located at Hillside, Ill. and thus began his studies for the Priesthood. He then pursued the required college course and year of Novitiate in the Servite Monastery located at Granville, Wisconsin and completed his philosophical training at the Servite Major Seminary then located at Hillside, Illinois. Afterwards, Father taught for one year at Saint Philip's High School, Chicago which is conducted by the Servite Fathers and now has an enrollment of 1500 boys. In Nov., 1941, due to ill health, Father was sent to the Southwest where he spent 18 months at Albuquerque and one year at Belen. While at Belen, Father was able to complete his first year of theology under the kind supervision of Father Raymond, John Castillo and Aloysius Boland. The healthy climate of New Mexico worked its usual miracle and in August, 1944 Father was so improved in health that he was able to enroll at Saint Thomas Seminary, Denver, Colorado. due to the war-time need for Priests, seminarians studied for eleven months instead of the usual nine; and on this accelerated schedule Father completed three years of theology in two years. Father Hayes was ordained in Chicago on May 26, 1946 by Bishop Bernard J. Shiel. He said his first Mass in his boyhood Parish, Saint Catherine of Siena, on June 2nd. At this Mass, the Belen Parish was well represented for Father Raymond preached the sermon and Moses Gallegos, a Servite Seminarian served. The whole Parish joins the Servite Community here in welcoming Father Hayes to our Parish.

The Service Parade

Marcos G. Martinez has been discharged from the service and is expected to drop in for a short visit . . .Yep, it's happened again and home again for another furlough is Tony Sanchez, a T/Sgt. in the army; and this time it's for 14 days. Nice going, Tony. Have you heard that Arnold Romero who is now on one of the Pacific Islands had an opportunity to practice the profession of his father, Nicanor Romero? He is emblaming all the bodies that are being sent to the States; and for such work he has been promoted to a higher rank. Congratulations Arnold! . ..Our best wishes to Pvt. Anselmo Ortega, stationed at Alamogordo, and Clara Flores who were married during the week at a Nuptial High Mass . . . We know that more and more of our veterans are anxious to join our newly-formed Catholic War Veterans Post and we're sure that all veterans are anxious to do all they can for "God, Country and Home" so in the near future we shall give more data about the C. W. V's Post.

RAMBLINGS

We are happy to have Father Andrew Hayes as the new assistant of Our Lady of Belen; and we know that his labors here will be fruitful and filled with blessings for our parishoners. In another article there is a short biography of Father Hayes so that you may be familiar with the facts of his Seminary life . . . We were in need of a server for Mass and a former GI did a swell job; he knew his prayers well despite not serving for years. We thank Eugenio Baca and we reprimand our Altar boys who neglected such an important duty and we wish to remind our parents to make sure that the Altar boys serve on their appointed days; the appointments are put in the Tidings each week and if one cannot serve a certain week he should notify one of the Fathers . . . We're told that Ernie Lujan challenged Ricardo Gilbert, our ping-ball star, to a game and our Ricardo lost but it was a different kind of game, it was billiards and so our star still shines . . . Have you noticed the new-paved road to Trigo Canyon? E. P. Robinson deserves credit, for his energetic labors kept "the ball rolling" while the Chamber of Commerce financed the project and our Boy Scouts cleared the rocks from the road. . . God's blessings to our newly-married couples: Delfin Lucero and Nestorita Castillo, Juan A. O'Neal and Aurora Garcia, to Anselmo Ortega and Clara Flores; they began their married life (as all Catholic married couples should) with Mass and the reception of Holy Communion . . . We offer our heartfelt sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Springer whose 3 month old baby was called to serve as one of God's angels . . .

Children of Mary

The Children of Mary are having a picnic at the river park on Manday, July 8th. The girls will meet at St. Mary's School at 5:30 and should be ready to leave at 6:00. All members are invited to come and have a good time. During the summer months we are asking our members to be present at all the meetings for many social activities are being planned and the help of all is needed.

THE CIVILIZED

"We've outgrown that sort of thing," said a High Critic GI to a Pacific Islander who showed him his copy of the Bible. Replied the native, "It's a good thing that we've not outgrown it here; otherwise you would have been a meal as soon as we saw you." (From Our Lady's Missionary quoted in the Catholic Mission Digest, Jan. '46).

of the Sacred Heart. At the age of 30, she immigrated to America—which is what many of our fathers and mothers did. She came to help her fellow countrymen who were finding it difficult to adjust themselves to this vast, raw country of ours. She met much opposition, but like a true American, she fought on. Soon she was able to erect an orphanage in New York. Like all Americans, she loved to travel and she soon founded orphanages and hospitals in Chicago, Denver, and Seattle. But even our country was not vast enough for the dreams of this woman for she founded houses in Nicaragua and other South American states. When the Sisters around her grew alarmed at her intensive work, she would quote the words of Leo XIII: "Let us work, Cabrini; let us work, and what a heaven will be ours." To which she replied: "But Holy Father, I love to work." What a typically American point of view.

Mother Cabrini did not neglect her spiritual life and always insisted on spending some time every day in prayer. She was a woman of deep faith and piety. Servites can attest to this for one of their own, Father Tom Moreschini was her confessor for many years. The Servites, along with Mother Cabrini, have done some of their best and most enduring work among the poor Italians of New York, Chicago, and Denver. Mother Cabrini then did not spend all her time on business, etc. for often as she sped across the country on a train, she would be sitting quietly saying her rosary. she frequently invoked Divine aid for her financial difficulites and she was never refused. On Dec. 22, 1916 although worn out by her many works and travels, she insisted on spending the entire day in doing up 500 Christmas packages for her beloved orphans. Soon after this, she died alone. But she never retired—and thus died active, or as we Americans say, with her boots on. Thus the first American Saint died as an American would wish.

Mother Cabrini has proven to the world that the American scene of rush and hurry can produce a saint. But it will do so only, if we, like Mother Cabrini, make a prayer of our duties. We do not have to slacken our speed or kill our ambition. We must make our work a means to an end, not an end in itself.

NOW THAT'S SETTLED

The pious monk who in an excess of fervor wrote the beautiful footnote to the Our Father, "For thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever," created great literature. It's a sonorous phrase. It has rhythm and power and dignity and beauty. But the Lord did not say it when He spoke the beautiful Lord's Prayer. The new Protestant translation of the Gospels omits that phrase from the Our Father. A long controversy between Catholics and Protestants has come to an end. Henceforth both Catholic and Protestant versions of the Our Father will end, "But deliver us from evil, Amen."

(From the N. C. W. C; column Along the Way by Daniel A. Lord, S. J., April 4, '46).

The Boy Scouts

The Boy Scouts of Belen have returned from their week's camping trip at camp McGaffey and from the reports given us it seems that all had a grand time. Here we wish to praise Mr. William Roach, Assistant Scout Master of Troop 186, for watching over both troops. He very unselfishly gave up a week's salary so that the boys would be able to make this trip. The parents appreciate this fact as well as the Manzano District of Boy Scouts and we thank him for such loyalty and generosity for our boys. SPECIAL NOTICE TO PARENTS: WE ARE FORMING CUBS' TROOPS (BOYS FROM 9, 10 and 11) AND THERE WILL BE A SPECIAL MEETING ON AUGUST 5th AND KEEP THIS DATE OPEN IF YOU WISH TO COME AND HAVE YOUR BOY OR BOYS BECOME A CUBBER . . . Our Scouts are reminded that if they wish to make any advancements they must pass the Board of Review on Friday, July 19th at the K of C. hall . . . we feel proud of the Scouts for we hear that they did themselves many honors while at camp and received their awards and advancements. Nice going, Boy Scouts.

Our Lady of Belen Tidings

Volume 2 BELEN, NEW MEXICO, OCTOBER 20, 1946 No. 1

GOSPELITES

The persons who declined the invitations of the king to the marriage feast of his son are typical of millions of Americans who are indifferent to God and religion. In the gospel story this morning Our Lord condemns this pitiable ignorance. It is culpable ignorance born of neglect of things spiritual and turning a deaf ear to God's and His Church's warning. There is no excuse for the indifferent person because like the persons invited to the marriage feast he is too preoccupied with business of this world to take time off to heed the warning of God.

Religious indifference is widespread in this land of ours. Witness it in the neglect of God, creed and church. Approximately half of our people in America do not belong to any religious faith. Many believe that one religion is a good as another or that one creed is just as useless as another. They are under the impression that religion is merely a luxury and not a vital need of men and nations.

Many Catholics too are neglectful and cold to religious devotions and practices which protect Faith and bring God nearer. They are cold to any form of Catholic Action whereby the Church is glorified and human happiness is promoted. They ignorantly profess a comprising broadmindedness and are deaf t othe Church as the voice of God.

Religious indifference is despicable. It is discourtesy to God to turn a deaf ear to Him. It is injustice to God to speak devoutly to Him and not to speak well and firmly of Him and His Church. It is despicable injustice to the nation to refuse God entrance into the life of the nation by personal love, service and praise of Him.

The spiritual deafness and dumbness of the world is stubborn and hard to cure. Bigoted persecutors of the Church are more easily cured than indifferentists because they are at least interested in some form of cult or relationship with God. It takes a miracle or a devastating tragedy to dislodge religious indifference. Like a totally uncultivated field it must be rooted out by beginning from scratch. Sad to say the indifferent person is very seldom converted.

Let us pray then that God will protect us from the contagion of this fatal religious malady. We live in the midst of it but must fight against it. Remember that God despises the tepid lukewarm believer. He invites us to His nuptials as a kind Father. We must heed this invitation with interest, enthusiasm and love.

Servite Fathers
Our Lady of Belen Church
Belen, New Mexico

Reverend and dear Fathers:

It is with pleasure that I have learned of the First Anniversary of your Parish paper, "Our Lady of Belen Tidings." It is my wish to join in the general acclaim which this paper has received and to wish this infant a long, healthy and successful life. By means of a parish paper the Pastor and Priests of the Parish have a powerful instrument to instruct, to guide and to counsel the members, giving all a reason for the Faith that is in them. A parish paper is a bond of union between priests and people, forming and vivifying a real parish spirit, making the parish, as it were, a big family.

Congratulating you, dear Fathers, on the "Our Lady of Belen Tidings" and bestowing upon it and all its readers a special blessing, I am

Devotedly yours in Christ,
Edwin V. Byrne,
Archbishop of Santa Fe

Archbishop Urges All To Contribute To Mission Collection Oct. 27

To Our Good Priests, Venerable Religious, Beloved Laity and Our Dear Little Children:

May Christ's Kingdom Come!

Sunday, October 27, is Mission Sunday in our Archdiocese of Santa Fe. On that day your Archbishop asks you to pray fervently for and give generously to the needy missions and missioners throughout the world.

Our Divine Savior was born and suffered and died in order to save all men. His Precious Blood was shed to redeem souls of every nation, clime and century. And He wants His Divine Church and His Priests to go to every part of the world and to teach all, baptizing them in the Name of the Father and of the Son of the Holy Ghost.

Today there is no place in the inhabited world where Catholic missioners are not laboring for immortal souls. They are found in the heat of the tropics and in the ice of the Artic. The Orient and the Occident are their habitat. But oh! the poverty, the struggles, the disappointments they face daily. The recent war brought death and destruction to many of our hopeful missions and missioners. They beg the help of us who are in circumstances favorable to aid them. They hold out their hands to us, asking for means to carry out, their God-given work and to bring His Kingdom on earth.

The world of today needs more than ever the saving doctrine of Our Gentle Savior. His Charity and Humility, His Justice and Meekness are what men everywhere need. We should deem it a privilege to cooperate in the most Divine of all Divine works—the saving of souls. Therefore your Archbishop calls upon all to contribute generously to the Mission Collection of October 27 and to make it the best in the history of the Archdiocese. And I wish our little ones, our beloved children, to make sacrifices and to give their pennies to the noble cause of the missions. Permission is hereby given to have Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament throughout Oct. 27 in Parish Churches and Convents.

United with you all in prayer, sacrifice and charity, I invoke upon you God's choicest blessings.

Cordially yours in Christ,
Edwin V. Byrne,
Archbishop of Santa Fe

October 12, 1946

P. S. This letter is to be read and explained at all the Masses on October 20 and 27.

A Movie At St. Mary's School

The story of the Vatican with intimate Scenes of His Holiness Pope Pius XII will be the next movie to come out on Nov. 1st at 5 o'clock for children and 8 o'clock for grownups.

All who revere religion, and all who are interested in the history of civilization, will want to see this film. This thrilling motion picture depicts the efforts of the Holy Father to bring peace to a war-torn world. We are shown the splendors of the Basilica of St. Peter's, the Murals of Michaelangelo in the Sistine Chapel, the Vatican Library and the crypts beneath the Cathedral where the Popes are buried. Rev. Monsignor Fulton J. Sheen eloquently reveals and interprets the scenes and activities of the Vatican.

The second picture will be a short one called "Controlled Kicking" It's a fine instructional reel teaching the fundamentals of kicking by the expert Leroy Mills. All lovers of Football will enjoy it.

The tickets will be 30c for adults and 10c for children.

These two pictures will also be shown in BOSQUE at 2 o'clock and in LOS CHAVEZ at 7 o'clock on the third of November.

Children of Mary

At the last meeting on October 9th, the election of new officers was held. Mary Jane Baca became the president; Silvia Baca, the Vice President; Filomena Silva, the Secretary and Mary Boling, the Treasurer. We congratulate the new officers, and we hope that through the help of God and His Blessed Mother they will perform their duties as well or even better than the out-going officers. We also hope that all the members of the Sodality will give them their full support.

RAMBLINGS

Geo T. Garcia, who was recently mustered out of the Army, came in to say hello to the Fathers. During his two year hitch in the Army, Joe saw service in the Philippine Islands and Japan. He served with Maritn Padilla . . . It is always a pleasure to see our teen-agers get ahead. So we were happy to read in the October 10th edition of the Journal that the seniors of Belen High had chosen Ruth Aragon as their president, Mary Quintana as vice-president and Tina Jo Salazar as secretary-treasurer. Their pictures also appeared with the article . . . Aside to the Catholic Daughters: Father Francis Campbell, assistant Pastor of St. Charles Church in Albuquerque has been appointed Chaplain of all C. D. A. groups in the Archdiocese . . While on the census, Mrs. Jose M. Pachecho told me that her son Joseph has been with the Army of Occupation in Germany for the last nine months. She showed me some pictures he had sent home. There were pictures of Munich, Stutgart, and the crematoria of the Dachau concentration camp . . . Also while on the census, I heard that Mr. and Mrs. Louis Zamora traveled to Washington, D. C. to be present at the christening of their grand-child. On the way back, they stopped off in Chicago to see Father Boniface, the former beloved Pastor of this parish. They said Father is well and had recently returned from a trip into Mexico where he inspected many Servite Third Order Groups . . . Tony Sanchez, Jr., on a three day pass from Fort Sill, Oklahoma, paid the Ciscans a visit last Thursday. At present Tony is screening men for the work for which they are most suited . . . Brother Alexis Olguin of our community left last week for a well-earned vacation trip to Los Angeles. On his way back, he plans to visit his sister who is a Benedictine Nun in Tucson . . . Attention, Fathers and Mothers of Servicemen. The Ciscans are planning to send a monthly letter to all our servicemen. We know that the soldiers would like to receive it for it will be written by these young people who have the same interests as your son. So if you want your son to receive this letter, bring his address to the Priests' House. The Ciscans will then see to it that they receive the letter . . . Do you know what baby is celebrating his first birthday today? The Tidings, of course. One year ago today Frs. Raymond, John, and Dominic launched it as a means of publishing Parish News and promoting a better Parochial spirit. But is was the interest which you, our parishoners showed in this new venture which spurred the Fathers on. And it was the generosity of our advertisers which made it possible for them to finance the Tidings. Please thank our advertisers by patronizing their places of business. We wish to take this opportunity to thank everyone who contributed to the success of the Tidings. In the future, we Servite Fathers hope that it will draw our parishoners closer to one another and to the Church—The local extension of the Mystical Body of Christ—and that it will facilitate our mission of saving souls . . . We extend our heartfelt sympathy to Mr. Perfecto Gabaldon whose wife, Rosalia died Oct. 12.
